

Managing Drinking Water Systems in First Nations Communities

A course designed for First Nations management who have operational responsibility for drinking water systems.

Complimentary registration and reimbursement of expenses

This course is designed as an introduction to management practices related to the drinking water systems in First Nations communities. The course provides a high-level overview of drinking water systems, explores components of effective drinking water system management and provides resources and practical tools for consideration in developing or making improvements to current practices.

May 2, 2019

Best Western Plus Dryden

8:30am - 4:30pm CEU: 0.7

Call 866-515-0550 X311 to register!
Or fax a registration form to 519-881-4947

This course is provided through the partnership between:

